Subject: Recent Developments in Turkey

On July 15, 2016, the Turkish government was subject to an attempted coup by a group within the Turkish army. The Turkish government and the Turkish security forces (including the Turkish army) took control of the situation in a short period of time and the ruling government remained in control. Following the coup attempt, there have been arrests of numerous individuals, including senior members of the military, police and judiciary, as well as suspension, dismissal, travel bans and legal proceedings against police officers, public employees and a number of individuals in the business community.

The Bank's operations have not been materially affected by the attempted coup. The Turkish banking system continues to operate under normal conditions and the Bank continues to perform its regular transactions under normal operating procedures.
